Instructions

- You may apply to the Division of Vehicles for a determination on whether you are eligible to have your driving suspension for failure to comply modification to a driving restriction for limited purposes. To be eligible for this modification you must meet all of the following criteria, otherwise your request will be denied:
  - You must be licensed in Kansas;
  - Your driving privileges are not currently withdrawn for other violations that are unrelated to your failure to comply;
  - Your driving privileges are not currently withdrawn for failure to comply with violations in another state/ jurisdiction
- You will receive written notice of your application being approved or denied. Allow 7-10 business days to process after your application is received. If approved, you will receive a restricted notice (Form DC-24L) indicating the detail of your restriction. If you are able to resolve the underlying failure to comply notice, the restrictions imposed here will be removed upon notice from the court. The restrictions are as follows:
  - To and from drug or alcohol counseling
  - To and from an appointment with a healthcare provider or during a medical emergency
  - In the course of your employment
  - Any place you are required to go by a court
  - To/From dropping off or picking up one or more children from childcare or school.
  - To/From purchasing groceries or fuel for their vehicle.
  - To/From any religious worship service held by a religious organization.
- If you are a commercial licensed driver and your commercial driving privileges are currently disqualified for failure to comply, the restriction will apply toward both your regular and commercial driving privileges. For all other violations, your commercial driving privileges will remain disqualified.
- If the application is denied, you will be notified with the reason(s) for the denial.
- The failure to comply with a traffic citation means failure either to:
  - Appear before any district or municipal court in response to a traffic citation and substantially comply with any fine and court costs imposed; or
  - Otherwise comply with a traffic citation. (K.S.A. 8-2118)
- The failure to comply with a traffic citation may result in a misdemeanor conviction, regardless of the disposition of the charge for which such citation was originally issued. (K.S.A. 8-2110(a))
